FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 12.

PICKING UP RATS WITH THE NAKED HANDS. -Picking up rais with the niked hands was the attriction lest night at the "Champions Rest," the ir gramme bigg that Frack Carroll, who has had o neiderable experience in the tusiness, and Mark Smith, a well-known sporting man of West Philadelphia, were to pick up 100 rats each, the one screen; labing it is the sporter time to become the nessess r of stakes amounting to $50 and the en ire give money. Carroll was the first to opter the cit, and getting the rais into a heap, plueged his bar: arms into there reeds for the call of time. In the first lift he pl cad wearly twoscore into the barrel, which was placed in the centry of the pit, and as TILIZER, composed of South Carolina Bone. quick as a flish Carroll made another dive and was as tu casful as in the first attempt. The trouble cow c mmerced, as the rats became separated. R gardless of position, Carroll gratbed them, and after the expiration of thirtyfour seconds the last one had been picked from the fit. Smith made a good attempt to defeat his opposion, the the rais broke after the first lift, and 30; seconds were required before the last rat was pisced in the berret. Previous atempts have been made to pick up the same number of rate, but the complement has always fallen short. This is said to have been the only legitimate match of the kied ever beld in America. - Thiladelphia Record.
